Dear Sajud,

After an initial review of your profile personally, I realized that it might be missing a personal biography that is detailed which outlines more information about your professional background.

In this case, might I kindly request for a third-person detailed biography of yourself, so that I am able to provide the judging committee chairperson with more details that might help facilitate the selection process? These information will also be displayed on your jury profile on our jury page should your application be successful.

We very much appreciate your amazing understanding towards this issue. Thank you and we look forward to receiving your response soon!
